

NOTICE OF HEALTH INFORMATION PRACTICES

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

INTRODUCTION

At Georgia Knee and Sports Medicine / Gwinnett Bone and Joint Specialists, we are committed to treating and using protected health information about you responsibly. This Notice of Health Information Practices describes the personal information we collect, and how and when we use or disclose that information. It also describes your rights as they relate to your protected health information. This Notice is effective April 1, 2003 and applies to all protected health information as defined by federal regulations.

UNDERSTANDING YOUR HEALTH RECORD / INFORMATION

Each time you visit our office(s) a record of your visit is made. Typically, this record contains your symptoms, examination, test results, diagnosis, treatment, and plan for future treatment and care. This information, often referred to as your health record, serves as a:

- Basis for planning your care and treatment,
- Means of communication among the many health professionals who contribute to your care,
- Legal document describing the care you receive, means by which you or a third party can verify that the services billed were actually provided,
- A tool in educating health professionals,
- A source of data for medical research,
- A source of information for public health officials charged with improving the care of this state and the nation,
- A source of data for our planning and marketing
- A tool with which we can access and continually work to improve the care we render and the outcomes achieve.

Understanding what is in your record and how your information is used helps you to:
Ensures its accuracy, better understand who, what, when, where, and why others may access your information and make informed decisions when authorizing disclosure to others.

YOUR HEALTH INFORMATION RIGHTS

Although your health record is the physical property of Georgia Knee and Sports Medicine / Gwinnett Bone and Joint Specialist, the information belongs to you. You have the right to:

- Obtain a copy of this Notice of Information Practices upon request
- Inspect and copy your health record as provided for in 45 CFR 164.524
- Amend your health record as provided in 45 CFR 164.528
- Obtain an accounting of disclosures of your health information as provided in 45 CFR 164.528
- Request communications of your health information by alternative means or at alternative locations
- Request a restriction on certain uses and disclosures of your information as provided by 45 CFR 164.522 and
- Revoke your authorization to use or disclose health information except to the extent that actions have already taken place.

OUR RESPONSIBILITIES

We are required to:

- Maintain the privacy of your health information
- Provide you with this notice as to our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to information we collect and maintain about you.
- Abide by the terms of this notice
- Notify you if we are not able to agree to a requested restriction
- Accommodate reasonable requests you may have to communicate health information by alternative means or at alternative locations.

We reserve the right to change our practices and to make the new provisions effective for all protected health information we maintain. Should our information practices change, we will mail a revised notice to the address you have supplied to us, or if you agree, we will e-mail the revised notice to you.

We will not use or disclose your health information without your authorization except as described in this notice. We will also discontinue to use or disclose your health information after we have received a written revocation of the authorization according to the procedures included in the authorization.

For More Information or to Report a Problem

If you have questions and would like additional information, you may contact the practices Privacy Officer, Brian Pallone at 404-296-5005.

If you believe your rights have been violated, you may file a complaint with the practices Privacy Officer, or with the Office of Civil Rights, US Department of Health and Human Services. There will be no retaliation for filing a complaint with either the Privacy Officer or the Office of Civil Rights. The address for OCR is:

Office of Civil Rights
US Department of Health and Human Services
200 Independence Avenue S.W.
Room 509F, HHH Building
Washington, D.C. 20201

Examples of Disclosures for Treatment, Payment, and Health Operations

We will use your health information for treatment

For Example: Information obtained by a nurse, physician, or other member of your health care team will be recorded in your record and used to determine the course of treatment that should work best for you. Your physician will document in your record his or her expectations of the members of your health care team. Members of your health care team will then record the actions they took and their observations. In that way, the physician will know how you are responding to treatment.

We will also provide your physician or a subsequent health care provider with copies of various reports that should assist him or her in treating you once you are discharged from the hospital.

We will use your health information for payment

For example: A bill may be sent to a third party payer. The information on or accompanying the bill may include information that identifies you, as well as your diagnosis, procedures, and supplies used.

We will use your health information for regular operation.

For Example: Members of the medical staff, the risk or quality improvement manager, or members of the quality improvement team may use information in your health record to assess the care and outcomes in your case and others like it. This information will then be used in an effort to continually improve the quality and effectiveness of the healthcare and services we provide.

Business Associates. There are some services provided in our organization through contact with business associates. Examples include physician services in the emergency department and radiology center, certain laboratory tests, and a copy services we use when making copies of your health record. When these services are contracted, we may disclose your health information to business associates so that they can perform the job we have asked them to do and bill you your third party payer for services rendered. To protect your information, however, we require the business associate to appropriately safeguard your information.

Directory: Unless you notify us that you object, we will use your name, location in the facility, general condition and religious affiliation for directory purposes. This information is provided to members of the clergy and, except for religious affiliation, to other people who ask for you by name.

Notification: We may use or disclose information to notify or assist in notifying family members, personal representative, or another person responsible for your care, your location and general condition.

Communication with Family: Health professionals, using their best judgment, may disclose to a family member, other relative, close friend, or any other person you identify, health information relevant to that persons involvement in your care or payment related you your care.

Research: We may disclose information to researchers when their research has been approved by an institutional review board that has reviewed the research proposal and established protocol to ensure the privacy of your health information.

Funeral Director: We may disclose health information to funeral directors consistent with the applicable law to carry out their duties.

Organ procurement organizations: Consistent with applicable laws, we may disclose health information to organ procurement organizations or other entities engaged in the procurement, banking, or transplant of organs for the purpose of tissue transplant and donation.

Marketing: We may contact you to provide appointment reminders or information about treatment alternatives or other health related benefits and services that may be of interest to you.

Fund Raising: We may contact you as part of a fund raising effort.

Food and Drug Administration (FDA): We may disclose to the FDA health information relevant to adverse events with respect to food, supplements, products, and product defects or post marketing surveillance information to enable product recalls, repairs, or replacement.

Workers Compensation: We may disclose health information to the extent authorized by and to the extent necessary to comply with laws relating to Workers Compensation or other similar program established by law.

Public Health: A required by law, we may disclose your health information to public health or legal authorities charged with preventing or controlling disease, injury or disability.

Law enforcement: We may disclose health information for law enforcement purposes as required by law or in response to a valid subpoena.

Federal law make provisions for your health information to be released to an appropriate health oversight agency, public heath authority or attorney, provided that a work force member or business associate believes in good faith that we have engaged in unlawful conduct or have otherwise violated professional, clinical standards and are potentially endangering one or more patients workers of the public.